

Community Profile

Research information regarding local demographics such as population, education, employment, real estate, and transportation. Community Profile data is provided by the Economic Development Council of Okaloosa County and the Emerald Coast Association of Realtors.

The use of Geographic Information System (GIS) Software provides free and immediate access to in-depth information about Valparaiso. Simply use the widget below to get started.

Research Community Profile

The City of Valparaiso is not responsible for the accuracy, currency, images, or information contained within the widget above.